Speakers from member firms share their risk management experiences and strategies, leading small and large group discussions with workshop participants.

Sessions are designed to develop firm leaders that understand risk management and the role it plays in driving more profitable project outcomes. Attendees leave with a better understanding of the resources available to them to manage project and client related risks and gain new tools to implement what they learn.

The Risk Management Workshop is perfect for rising leaders looking to establish and build their risk management toolbox and for more seasoned leaders looking to fine tune their risk management practices. Interactive sessions and networking opportunities allow participants to ask questions, share their own experiences, and build connections with peers from across North America.
